HEARTHWORK

Thanksgiving Gratitude Activities

Simple printables for families who want rhythm, not chaos.

Inside this kit:

- 6 thankful tree leaves to cut out
- Fold-up gratitude dice game
- Roll and share prompts for any die
- 8 Thanksgiving table talk cards
- November thankful list (Nov 1 to 26)
- Gratitude ideas by age (2 to 12)

Print on US Letter at 100% scale. Black and gray ink friendly.
Tip: slip pages into a dry-erase sleeve to reuse every week.

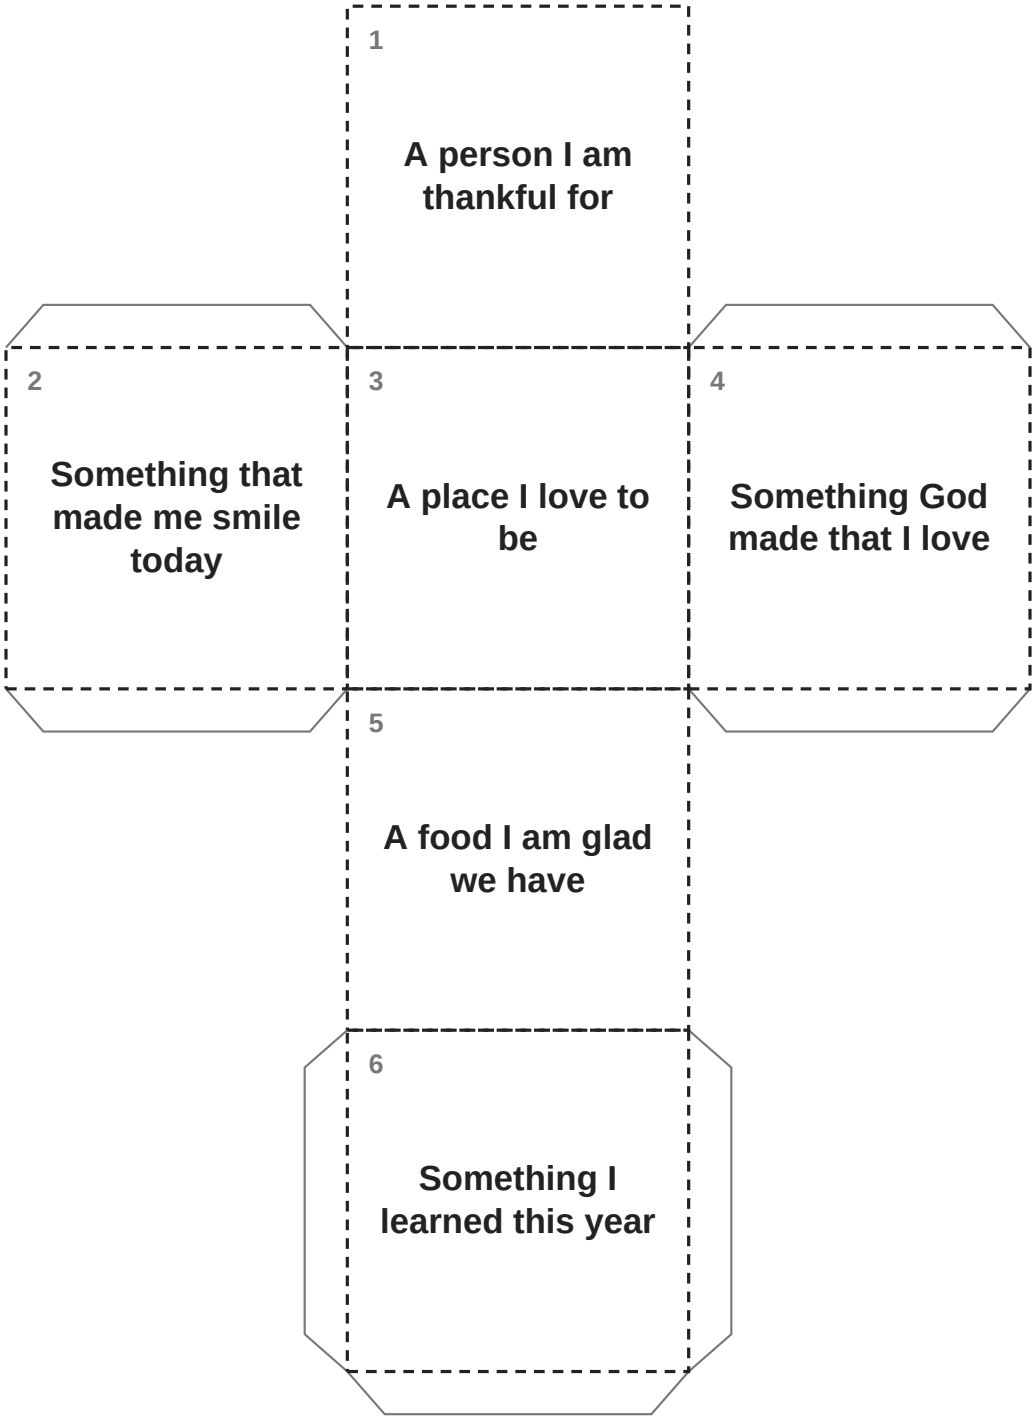
Personal and household use only. Please do not resell or redistribute.

Thankful Tree Leaves

Cut out, write one thing, and tape to a branch or a paper tree. Print as many as you need.

Gratitude Dice

Cut around the outside, fold on the dashed lines, and glue the tabs inside.



Roll and Share

No scissors? Roll any regular die and answer the matching prompt.

How to play

- Pass the die around the table. Each person rolls once and answers in one or two sentences.
- Anyone can add a me too or ask one question. Play one round and stop while kids still want more.

Little kids (2 to 6)

- Roll 1: a person you love.
- Roll 2: something that made you smile today.
- Roll 3: a place you like to go.
- Roll 4: an animal or plant you love.
- Roll 5: your favorite food.
- Roll 6: a toy or book you are glad you have.

Big kids (7 to 12)

- Roll 1: someone who helped you this year, and how.
- Roll 2: the best part of your week.
- Roll 3: a hard thing that turned out good.
- Roll 4: something you usually take for granted.
- Roll 5: something you have that you used to wish for.
- Roll 6: a person you want to thank this week.

Gratitude Ideas by Age

Small, daily, and together beats one big moment.

- [ ] Ages 2 to 4: ask what made you happy today, color a leaf, point to a picture, say thank you for one food at dinner.
- [ ] Ages 5 to 8: roll the gratitude dice, tape leaves to the tree, draw a thank-you card for a teacher or grandparent. Ask why, not just what.
- [ ] Ages 9 to 12: write a real thank-you note, lead the dinner prompt, name a hard thing that turned out good.
- [ ] All ages: a short thankful prayer at bedtime. Specific beats general: the soup Grandma made, not just food.
- [ ] Tip: keep the leaves, tape, and a pen in one basket by the table so the nightly habit takes under a minute.
