Making Winter Break Work

A few fixed anchors, one special thing, and plenty of unhurried time.

- [ ] Ages 2 to 3: keep naps, meals, and bedtime at the usual times. Use the picture chart and show only the next 3 steps.
- [ ] Ages 4 to 6: post the picture chart and put tomorrow's cards up the night before. One outing a day is plenty.
- [ ] Ages 7 to 9: let them fill in the week at a glance with you and pick one bucket-list item per day.
- [ ] Ages 10 to 12: give them the daily schedule to fill in, with a morning job and a set screen-time window they agreed to.
- [ ] Keep wake-up within an hour of the school-day time, so the first week back is not a shock.
- [ ] Two days before school starts, go back to the school morning and bedtime routine.
