Making Chores Stick at 4

Fewer chores, shorter jobs, and you stay close.

- [ ] Start with 2 to 4 chores. One in the morning and one or two after dinner is enough for most 4 year olds.
- [ ] Stay in the room. At 4, chores are side-by-side work, not solo jobs. You do yours while they do theirs.
- [ ] Expect 4 year old work. Toys in the bin counts, even if the lid is crooked. Praise the try.
- [ ] Use pictures, not words. Most 4 year olds cannot read a list, so the chart has to show the job.
- [ ] Keep each chore under three minutes. Longer jobs get abandoned halfway.
- [ ] Everyday family chores stay unpaid. A sticker or a high five at the end of the day is plenty.
